

Israel Center of Conservative Judaism, Hillcrest Jewish Center, and the Jewish Center of Kew Gardens Hills are proud to invite you to

SELICHOT 2022

How to Forgive When You Can't Forget: Choosing Forgiveness in an Unforgiving Age with special guest speaker

Rabbi Charles Klein

SATURDAY NIGHT, SEPTEMBER 17

8:15 PM

These days are a gift to us - our annual opportunity to reject the anger and alienation of our unforgiving age and devote ourselves to repairing our lives and our relationships.

Anger, feelings of having been hurt by family members and friends, the emotional wounds inflicted upon us are too heavy to carry forever. On these days when we pray for forgiveness, we can choose to begin our own journey towards forgiveness. There is a path that can lead us beyond the dead end of resentment, hurt and estrangement to a place where forgiveness can begin.

8:15 pm - Gathering and Schmoozing

8:30 PM - Selichot Program with Rabbi Charles Klein

9:30 PM - Noshing and Schmoozing

10:00 PM - Selichot Service

Join us in-person at Hillcrest Jewish Center

183-02 Union Turnpike, Flushing, NY 11366 • 718-380-4145

Or online - check your emails or call the office for the links to stream the program and service